

Teaching Travels

Sigrid Piroch is an internationally known textile expert who travels frequently to teach a wide variety of textile topics on weaving, spinning and computer textile design. She has taught for over 70 museums, craft schools, studios, colleges, conferences, polytechnics and guilds in 11 countries, more than 40 US states and various Canadian provinces.

- In 2002 Sigrid taught and toured Thailand and Laos through the US State Department and the US Embassies in both countries. In Bangkok she presented "Patterns which Connect" for the Textile Conservation and Cultural Preservation Conference at the Siam Society under royal patronage, and then for the National Museum of Thailand. She gave 11 presentations in 4 cities, in Vientiane and Luang Prabang/Laos, Chiang Mai and Bangkok/Thailand. Her topics included "American Historic Textiles", especially featuring handwoven coverlets; "Conservation: Caring for your Textile Collection" in Tropical Rain Forest regions, and "Textile Analysis: Discovery and Documentation", including hands-on workshops.
- In 1995 she traveled over 30,000 miles to teach in Australia/Tasmania and New Zealand giving 33 seminars and workshops in 13 weeks on many varied subjects -- she was the only foreign tutor for National Conferences in both Australia and New Zealand; workshops included, among others, The Otago Polytechnic School of Art in Dunedin, NZ and The International Weaving School in Picton, NZ.
- In 1994 Sigrid taught, researched and toured England, the Czech Republic, Germany, Sweden and Slovakia giving workshops for craft centers, guilds and museum staff on "Computer Textile Design" including, among others, the Swedish Handicrafts Society in Stockholm Sweden and The Slovak National Museum in Martin Slovakia .
- In 1988 she toured and taught for 7 weeks in the Northwest, Canada and Washington/Oregon on a variety of topics.
- Some US billets have included: the Marshfield School of Weaving in VT, Harrisville Designs in NH, Marymount College in NY, Wyoming Museum in PA, the Rob Roy Tavern School of Weaving in PA, The Handweaving Museum and Arts Center in NY, the Southwest Craft Center in TX... and others throughout the country.
